

WRITE THE HEADLINE

Read about the candidates and watch videos of interviews and debates. Pay attention, and answer these questions. Write your answers to share in groups or with your class or with your family.

- If you were reporting on what the candidate said, what would your headline be?
- The next day, read actual headlines. Were you close? Were they right? Why or why not?
- Read headlines from different news sources. What do they say? How are they similar or different? Why?
