

2012 is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for K-12 students to see, and experience, civics, government and leadership in action. GenerationNation offers smart, fun, engaging, educational, and always nonpartisan programs and activities to educate and impact thousands of students (and the adults around them) in Charlotte and across the region, state and nation.

Connecting K-12 students with Election 2012 and civics in action through smart, fun and engaging educational resources and activities

www.GenerationNation.org/k12in2012

Your source for nonpartisan educational resources, news, activities and other ways to learn about and get involved in political conventions, Election 2012 and more. Now through Inauguration Day!

- Home page
Find the latest news, opportunities, teaching resources and multimedia.
- Learning Center
Curriculum, resources, reading lists and educational tools for teachers, parents, students, afterschool and youth programs...everyone.
- Get involved
News, events & things to do. Find out how to get involved in convention and election activities, volunteer, experience elections with Kids Voting, and more.
- Multimedia
Your turn to put civics into action! See how K-12 students are learning about and getting involved in the excitement of 2012 – and share what YOU are doing. (Learn more - page 2)
- GenerationNation
Learn more about GenerationNation and our year-round K-12 civic education, civic engagement and civic leadership programs.

YOUR TURN! How are YOU putting civics into action?

- Doing something fun to learn about political conventions? Election 2012?
- Learning about civics, government and leadership? Serving the community? Getting involved in the political process?
- As Charlotte takes the stage to host the convention, do you see politicians, media or celebrities in the city? Have a story about your city you want to tell to others?

Share your photos, videos & activities

Make a video, take a photo, or highlight an issue important to you.

Then, tag and share it on the web. We'll find it and share it so that everyone can see what children and youth are doing to learn about and experience civics in action, political conventions and Election 2012!

Facebook www.facebook.com/generationnation

Flickr www.flickr.com/generationnation

Twitter www.twitter.com/GenNation @GenNation

YouTube www.youtube.com/kvmecklenburg

Pinterest www.pinterest.com/GenNation

Share curriculum/activities info@generationnation.org

K12in2012 www.GenerationNation.org/k12in2012

GenerationNation www.GenerationNation.org

Tag #k12in2012 and #GenNation

or email info@generationnation.org